THREE PERSON ASPHYXIATED.

Overcome by the fumes of a gas of unknown origin, three persons of the family of Clarence L. Bremerman, a stenographer in the Library of Congress, were asphyxiated in their home, 1309 First street northwest, Washington, yesterday.

The dead are Mrs. Heba Ottis Bremerman 34 years old; Ottis Bremerman, 16 months old, her son, and Mrs. Helen Catherine Bremerman, 68 years old, her mother-in-law.

When Bremerman returned home from work he noticed his infant son apparently asleep in a crib in the dining room. He called to his wife that the baby was asleep. Receiving no reply he went into the kitchen, where he found his wife and mother lying dead on the floor. Bremerman detected a strong odor of gas, but was unable to locate the source.

The coroner, the police, and a number of physicians who were called in, were unable to determine the exact nature of the deadly fumes. An autopsy over the younger woman will be held today to determine the cause of the death of the three persons.

The police entertain the theory that the asphyxiation was purely accidental. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup moves the bowels gently. Contains no opiates. It is pleasant to take, and children especially like the taste, so nearly like maple sugar. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

MINISTER CHARGED WITH MURDER.

At the third adjourned session of the coroner's jury in Suffolk which has been investigating the death of Rev. James L. Smith, colored, who had been mysteriously missing from his flock at Reids Ferry, Va., since last August, a verdict was brought in yesterday that Smith had come to his death from the effects of a blow from a blunt instrument in the hands of Rev. Ernest Lyons, also colored, who already is in custody. No trial was allowed. Both preachers were followers of the "sanctified" sect, and Lyons is alleged to have killed Smith to secure the pastorate, which he did. Lyons explained the absence of Smith by saying that his father was ill in Wilson, N. C., that he had gone off to get married, that he had trouble about a female member of his flock, that he could not raise $40 conference dues, and that he was conducting a revival in Newport News. Smith's body was buried and afterward dismembered and thrown into Nansemond river, where it was found, buried by the county, but again taken up when a clew pointed to foul play.

Try Kold today on our guarantee. Take it for a while, as that is all you will need to take. Kold digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. It is sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

PAYING ELECTION BET.

Heralded by the brazen notes of a bugle blown by the victim of a fresh election bet, two other participants in the same wager wheeled the winners through the streets of the northwestern section of Baltimore in wheelbarrows last night. The party of five were accompanied by a number of their friends, who rode in a furniture wagon which had been decorated with lanterns. The latter poked fun at their unfortunate comrades, to the amusement of the pedestrians who were attracted by the notes of the bugle.

The party consisted of Messrs. Gordon H. and Carroll B. Littlepage, Charles C. Odwell, W. H. Courtney and Jack H. Love. The Messrs. Littlepage were the losers, and were compelled to wheel the winners—Messrs. Courtney and Love—while Mr. Odwell, who also lost, healed the procession seated on the back of a mule and blowing a bugle. The procession started at Pennsylvania and Fulton avenues and proceeded south to Lexington street and thence to Arch street. The losers were compelled to carry a large sign on their backs with the words, "I Lost," inscribed on it, while the victors in the barrows carried lighted Japanese lanterns. The bet was on the general election.

What Would You Do.

In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

REV. MR. FITZHUGH COMES TO VIRGINIA.

Rev. George S. Fitzhugh, of Curtis Bay Anne Arundel county, Md., returned to his home yesterday from Spring Grove Asylum, where he had been undergoing treatment. Rev. Mr. Fitzhugh was formerly rector of St. Barnabas Protestant Episcopal Church, Curtis Bay. He attracted considerable attention a few months ago by procuring a license at Elliot City, Md., for his marriage to Lulu Frazer 10 years old, whom he had brought from Virginia. He left yesterday for Port Royal where he will make his home.
